"Invisible" prepositions
They've gone in cognito!

I. When Romans said "in/ to/ from" a town they did NOT like to use prepositions! NO PREPS ALLOWED!

A way to remember HOW to form these sneaky phrases!

"from" - _____ use the endings _____ or _____ ex: from Rome = _____

"to" - _____ use the endings _____ or _____ ex: to Rome = _____

"in" - _____ use the endings _____ or _____ ex: in Rome = _____

II. When Romans expressed a THING USED, they did NOT like to use a preposition. NO PREPS ALLOWED!

They would put the THING USED in the _____ case and use _____ preposition.

ex: Julius sell____ vehitur. (Cap. VI, Line 78)

"Invisible" prepositions
They've gone in cognito!

I. When Romans said "in/ to/ from" a town they did NOT like to use prepositions! NO PREPS ALLOWED!

A way to remember HOW to form these sneaky phrases!

"from"   -   _ABlative_   use the endings _-ō or -ā_

ex: from Rome = _Romā_

"to"   -   _ADcusative_   use the endings _um_ or _am_

ex: to Rome = _Romam_

"in"   -   gINitive   use the endings _ī_ or ae_

ex: in Rome = _Romae_

II. When Romans expressed a THING USED, they did NOT like to use a preposition. NO PREPS ALLOWED!

They would put the THING USED in the _Ablative_ case and use _NO_ preposition.

ex: Julius sell_ā_ vehitur. (Cap. VI, Line 78)