I. Translate one of the following two passages into good English on a separate sheet of paper, double-spaced. Be sure to write at the top of your page whether you are translating choice one or two. Identify the grammatical constructions that are bolded. Answer the grammar questions from the passage you don't translate for bonus points.

Choice One: Rōmae nōmen Lucumōnis mūtātum est in Lūcium Tarquinium Prīscum. Paulō post tūtor līberīs rēgis institūtus est. Tantam laudem et rēgis et populī Rōmānī tam celeriter sibi obtinuit ut post mortem Ancī senātōribus Rōmānīs persuadēret ut sibi imperium darent...Bella feliciter gessit in Latīnōs ac, hostibus victīs, multōs agrōs territōriō urbis iūnxit. Prīmus triumphāns urbem intrāvit...
