

Nomen: _____

Write out a translation and answer the grammar questions for the following passage.

Paucīs diēbus interiectīs Sex. Tarquinius, Collātīnō ignārō, cum comite ūnō ad domum Lucretīae et Collātīnī vēnit. Amōre ardēns, postquam omnēs dormīre vīsi sunt, strictō gladiō ad dormientem Lucretīam vēnit.

Grammar:

1. List three Ablative Absolutes from the passage:

2. List two other participles that are NOT in the ablative absolutes and parse each of them:

Nomen: _____

Write out a translation and answer the grammar questions for the following passage.

Paucīs diēbus interiectīs Sex. Tarquinius, Collātīnō ignārō, cum comite ūnō ad domum Lucretiae et Collātīnī vēnit. Amōre ardēns, postquam omnēs dormīre vīsi sunt, strictō gladiō ad dormientem Lucretiam vēnit.

After a few days intervened/ a few days having been intervened, Sextus Tarquinius, with/while Collatinus being ignorant/ clueless, with one companion came to the house of Lucretia and Collatinus. Burning with love, after everyone seemed to sleep, after his sword was drawn/ after drawing his sword, having drawn his sword/ his sword having been drawn/ , he came to the sleeping Lucretia.

Grammar:

1. List three Ablative Absolutes from the passage:

Paucīs diēbus interiectīs

Collātīnō ignārō

strictō gladiō

2. List two other participles that are NOT in the ablative absolutes and parse each of them:

ardēns - present, active, nominative, singular, masculine participle

dormientem - present, active, accusative, singular, feminine participle